

Airborne emergency communication command base station

The 2 Airborne Command and Control Squadron operated and maintained the SAC Airborne Command Post in support of Hq SAC (Looking Glass). The mission aircraft for the Airborne Command Post was ...

In addition to its national and NC3 mission, the E-4B provides support to the Federal Emergency Management Agency, which provides communications and command center capability to relief ...

The E-4B, also referred to as the National Airborne Operations Center (NAOC), routinely conducts global command and control missions for the Secretary of Defense when traveling overseas due to ...

In case of national emergency or destruction of ground command control centers, the aircraft provides a modern, highly survivable, command, control and communications center to direct U.S. forces, ...

Enroute Mission Command (EMC) provides short notice units, such as the XVIII Airborne Corps, with the critical in-flight mission command and plane-to-plane/plane-to-ground network...

It was the single platform that combined the latest Command Control Communications and elite crews that assured connectivity between missileers, aircrews and the President of the United States.

The E-4B National Airborne Operations Center supports the National Command Authority (NCA) and the Chairman Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS).

Formally named the National Emergency Airborne Command Post (NEACP) its home base is the 55th Wing at Offutt AFB, NE.

Web: <https://black-hat.co.za>