

Zooming through Dushanbe's bustling streets, electric taxis - many sporting Chinese brand logos - have become the heartbeat of Tajikistan's capital. With the mayor's bold mandate ...

Discover how Dushanbe is electrifying its taxi industry with affordable Chinese EVs, spearheading a green revolution in Central Asia!

Data from Koinot Auto, a major regional distributor, reveals Chinese automakers now account for 48% of Dushanbe's EV market. The transition aligns with Tajikistan's national strategy to ...

Switching from conventional fossil fuel vehicles to electric vehicles (EVs) offers a promising way to reduce carbon emissions, especially if we also decarbonize our electricity sources. ...

Local distributor Koinot Auto reveals that nearly half of Dushanbe's EV market is now dominated by Chinese car brands. This surge not only highlights the rising demand for sustainable ...

Chinese car brands now make up nearly half of Dushanbe's EV market, according to local distributor Koinot Auto. Looks like Dushanbe is driving toward a greener future, with China's EVs ...

According to its Green City Action Plan (GCAP), the electrification of the city's vehicle fleets would be the most effective way of improving its air quality.

According to Koinot Auto, a leading local distributor, Chinese mainland car brands now account for nearly 50% of Dushanbe's EV market. Their popularity reflects a blend of price, reliability, ...

Of the five Central Asian states, Tajikistan has taken the most dramatic measures to accelerate its transition to EVs. It has made it mandatory for all taxi companies in the capital, ...

Brands like BYD, Changan, and Geely dominate Tajik showrooms, while Chinese-built electric buses and minibuses are now deployed across Dushanbe's transport network. The CGTN network ...

Web: <https://black-hat.co.za>