

Prepaid energy purchases are charged per calendar month. At the end of each billing period, the usage is reset to zero and the customer is billed starting from the first block. For prepaid ...

Find out the current prices for a whole list of other products in Pretoria (South Africa).

Tariff and charges are tailored to meet changing customer needs and ease of understanding grouped into 5 tariff categories namely residential, urban, rural, municipal and generator tariffs. For ...

Residents of the City of Tshwane, which includes Pretoria and surrounding areas, receive monthly utility bills covering essential services such as electricity, water, sanitation, and refuse removal.

The National Energy Regulator of South Africa (NERSA) is a regulatory authority established as a juristic person in terms of Section 3 of the National Energy Regulator Act, 2004 (Act No. 40 of 2004)

In Pretoria electricity rates vary, and the optimal rate for your business may differ based on how you use electricity in your day-to-day operations. It is therefore essential for companies to ...

Tshwane prepaid electricity tariffs are applicable for the amount purchased per month and not per token. If token are purchased in smaller denominations, then this will form part of an accumulative kWh ...

Many South African households should brace for electricity bills increasing by more than R200 starting July 2025. While a 12.74% electricity tariff increase already kicked in for Eskom Direct...

Learn about the current electricity cost per kWh in South Africa, how it's determined, what influences pricing, and effective ways to lower your energy bills.

Current Tariff New Tariff from 1 July 2025 1 to 100kWh

Web: <https://black-hat.co.za>